BRIEF SUMMARY

The purpose of this report is to request that Council endorse the Brigade Operating Procedures for the management of Bush Fire Brigades throughout the Shire of Woodanilling.

BACKGROUND/COMMENT

As a result of new Work Health and Safety Act 2020, changes to the Department of Fire and Emergency Services training modules and a review of how the document performs in an operational sense. These procedures have been endorsed by BFAC to adhere to the new Work Health and Safety Act 2020.

The Shire of Woodanilling Bush Fire Operating Procedures outlines the working structure of Bush Fire Brigades and can be reviewed by Council and/or the Bush Fire Advisory Committee at any time. The procedures set normal operational and strategic procedures for administration and maintenance of Bush Fire Brigades for the Shire.

Currently the Shire has a Bush Fire Brigade Local Law that does not provide any guidance for the management of the Bush Fire Brigades in the Shire of Woodanilling. A new local law will be drafted for the strategic management of all personnel within the Shire of Woodanilling Bush Fire Brigades over the coming months.

Preparing and considering Brigade Operating Procedures in advance of this local law coming into effect, will enable brigades the opportunity to familiarise themselves with the procedures and the expectations associated with them. It will, for the first time, provide an element of consistency across all of the Shire's brigades that will ultimately assist in a robust framework that continues to build the capabilities of the brigades.

The Brigade Operating Procedures seek to unify and provide a consistent management framework, which reflects a contemporary set of processes and procedures, and which provides effective guidance in the management of brigades and their professional volunteers.

The endorsement of the Brigade operating procedures for all Shire of Woodanilling Bush Fire Brigades will allow for sound management through specialized documented processes enhancing consistency across all brigades. Adopting these in advance of the local law being finalised will also enable brigades the opportunity to familiarise themselves with the procedures and the expectations associated with them.
